USER MANUAL

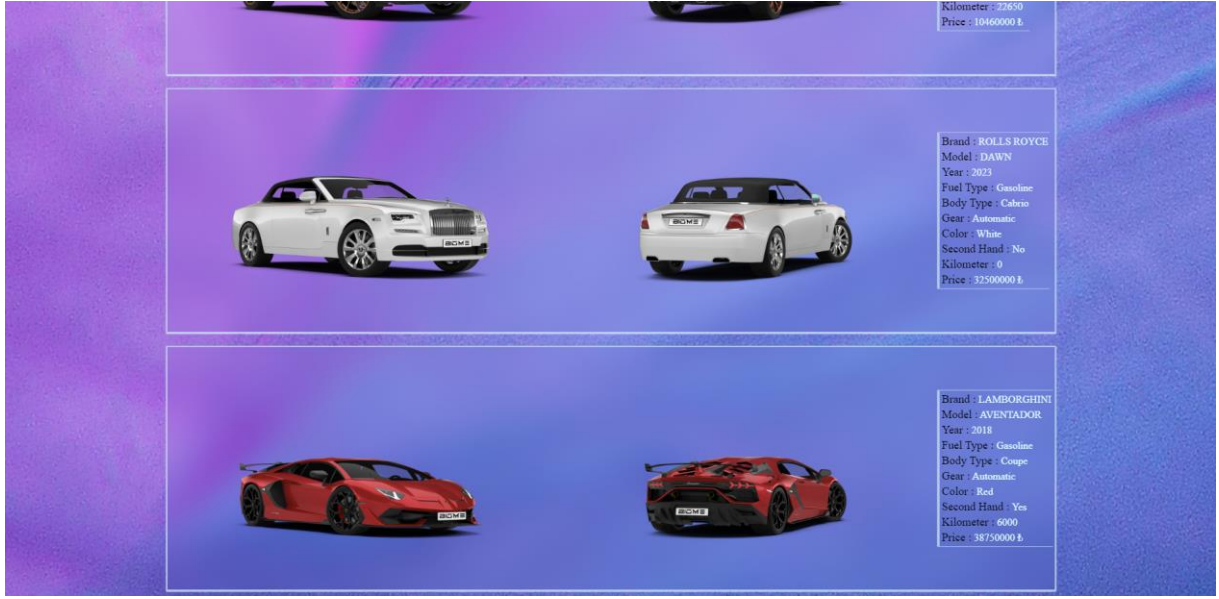

Thanks for choosing Biome. Welcome to our world of automotive excellence. From now on, we will guide you through our website.

When you enter our website, first thing you see will be this;

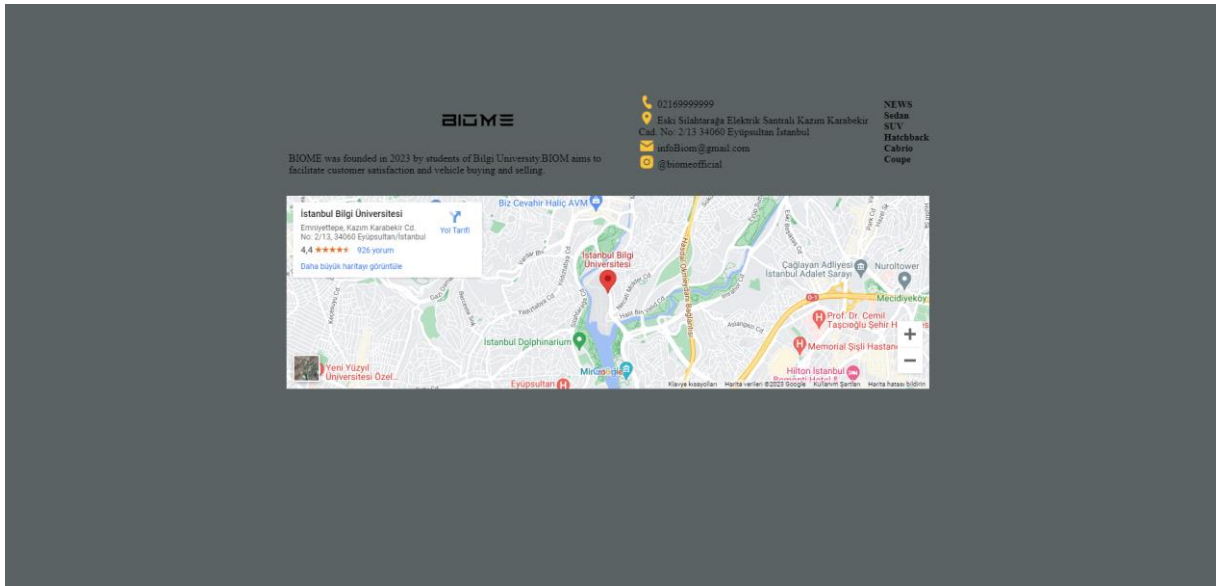

Our main page shows featured cars in minimalistic and slick UI design. You can navigate through our main page by picking your desired selection from up top. For example, if you are interested in our SUVs, you'll be picking SUV option from up top and click the button with "More" written on. By doing so, you will be redirected to the list showing our finest selection of cars available, which can be seen like this;

Welcome to our cars page. In this page, you can see the finest vehicles available in our Biome Gallery. You can see the features of cars and filter them according to your preferences from up top, by using our filtering options.

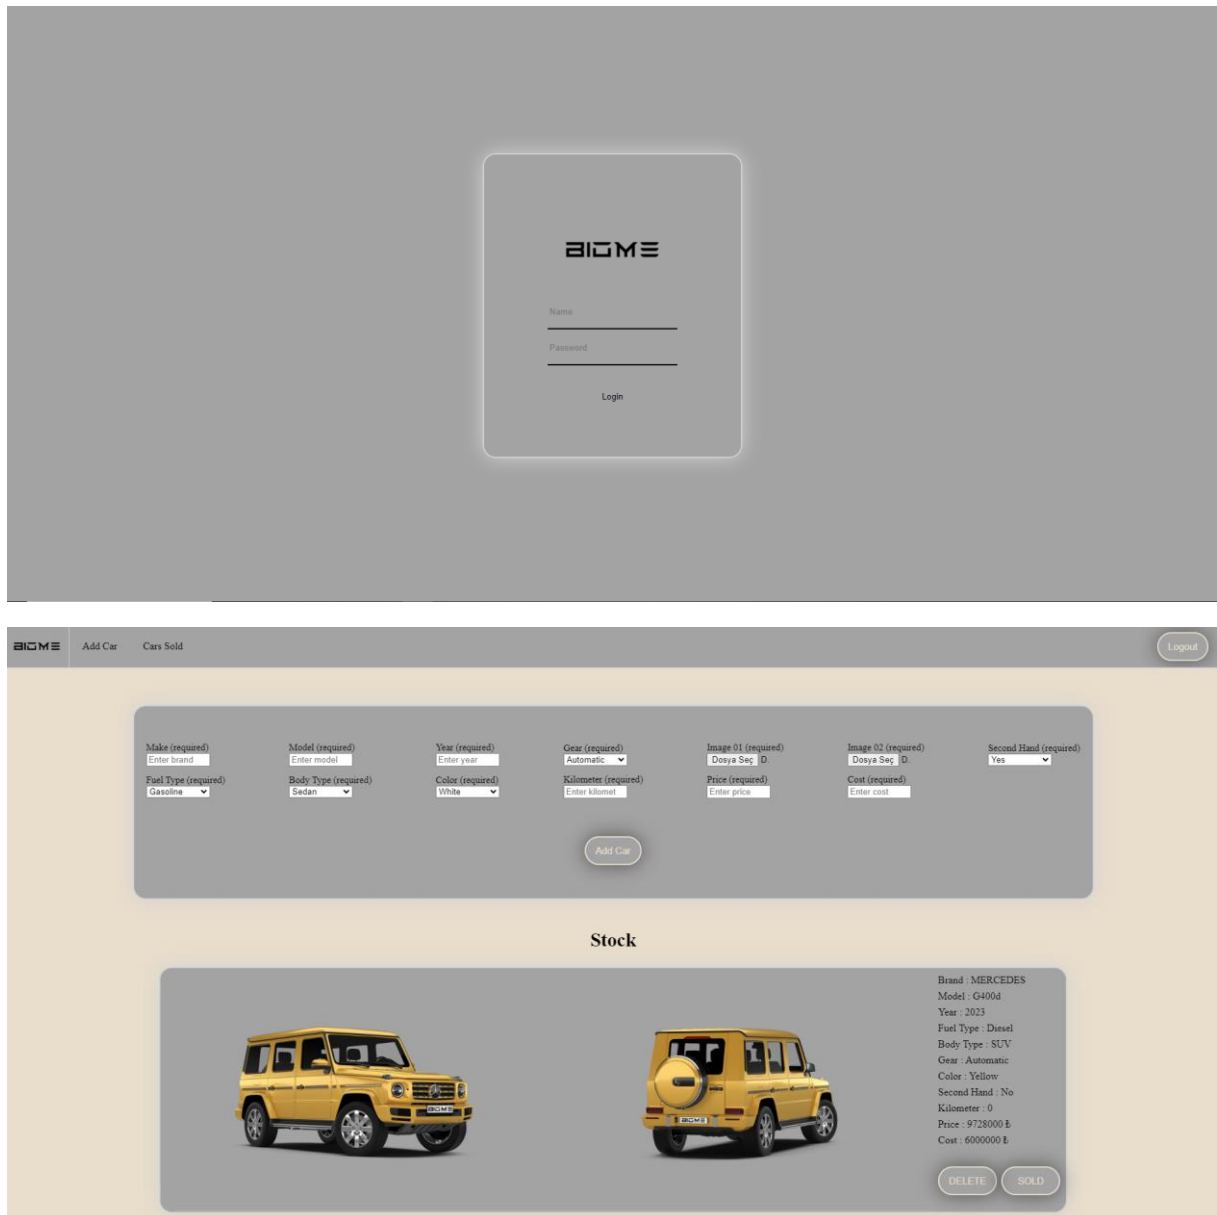

You saw a car you like, and you want to buy? Excellent! To do so, you should be contacting us by picking the “Contact” button from top right and giving us a call or visiting our car gallery, which location is given by a map. Our sales experts will be available to help and finish the sales procedures while also giving you an experience like no other.

PERSONEL USER MANUAL

Hi! If you are reading this, you must be our new colleague. Welcome to our family of Biome!

You can access admin panel through this link: <http://localhost/project/admin/adminLogin.php>

I will be guiding you through the admin panel. When you first access the admin panel using the credentials given, you'll be seeing this;

The screenshot displays the Biome Admin Panel. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Add Car' and 'Cars Sold' links, and a 'Logout' button. The main content area is divided into two sections. The first section is a form for adding a new car, featuring fields for Make, Model, Year, Gear, Image 01, Image 02, Second Hand, Fuel Type, Body Type, Color, Kilometers, Price, and Cost. The second section, titled 'Stock', shows a list of cars in the inventory. Each car entry includes a front and rear view image, a list of specifications (Brand, Model, Year, Fuel Type, Body Type, Gear, Color, Second Hand, Kilometers, Price, Cost), and buttons for 'DELETE' and 'SOLD'.
